"BUSTS ANY PRECONCEPTIONS ABOUT LIMITS ON WHAT PEOPLE WITH DYSLEXIA CAN ACHIEVE" THE NEW YORK TIMES

The Big Picture: Rethinking Dyslexia

Movie & Debate!

7pm, Thursday 29th May 2014
at Sheepdrove Conference Centre

Come and join us at the showing of this unique and truly uplifting film about what it is like to be dyslexic in today's world.

Whether you are dyslexic or not, then this really is a 'must see' film.

After the film showing, there will be a chance to talk to and take part in a short Q & A session focussing on issues faced by students and adults with dyslexia.

The debate will be chaired by Judith Bunting. The panel of experts includes:
Lord Addington VP of British Dyslexia Association,
Jacqui Flisher - Dyslexia Specialist,
Gary Smith - CEO / Founder of Brainbook and Dyslexia Toolbox,
Inspector Chris Ward - Foundation Training Manager at Thames Valley Police
Claire Malpas - Diversity Steering Group at the Institute of Mechanical Engineers

This event is aimed at adults, but children 8-16 years of age are welcome.
Adults tickets are £5 (includes glass of wine & nibbles), but children go free.

Tickets available from: <http://bit.ly/1rC03Pv>

Important: If using a SatNav, then please do not use the venue postcode, but Sheepdrove Road, Lambourn.
